MEDICAL

DR. SPINNEY & CO'S DISPENSARY,

No. 11 KEARNEY STREET, SAN FRANCISCO.

DR. SPINNEY, well known as the founder of the Montreal (C. E.) Medical Institute, and late Proprietor of the SPINNEY VILLE INFIRMARY, would most respectfully inform his patients and the afflicted generally, that he still continues to treat chronic and nervous diseases with unparalleled success.

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN

Remember that procrastination is the thief of me

COME AND BE HEALED!

It matters not what you troubles may be come and let the Doctor examine your case. It will cost you nothing for consultation, so please call and satisfy yourselves whether the Doctor understands your case. If he can cure you he will tell you so; if not, he will tell you that, for he will not undertake a case unless he is confident of effecting a cure.

Parties at a distance wishing treatment, by sending $5 and a minute description of their troubles will receive in return a full course of treatment securely packed so as not to excite curiosity.

DR. SPINNEY will guarantee to forfeit Five Hundred Dollars for every case of any kind or character which he undertakes and fails to cure.

P. S.—For diseases of short standing a full course of medicines, sufficient for a cure, with all instructions, will be sent to any address on receipt of $10.00

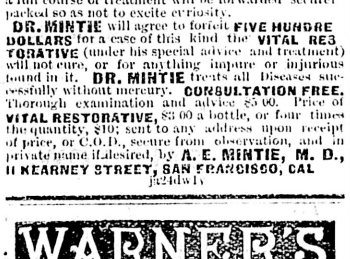
WARNER'S SAFE REMEDIES



WARNER'S SAFE PILLS

Are an immediate and active stimulus for a Torpid Liver, and cure Costiveness, Dyspepsia, Biliousness, Bilious Diarrhœa, Malaria, Fever and Ague, and should be used whenever the bowels do not operate freely and regularly.

Their action is gentle than that of other pills, and at the same time more effective. No other pills require such small doses for thorough work.

They have been used with great success in the English army, where Malaria prevails, and are the best antidote for all kinds of Malarial Poison.

People who live or work in unhealthy places, and those of sedentary habits, should use them. Taken at bed-time, they promote rest and bring on natural evacuations the next forenoon.

They do not act directly on the bowels, but indirectly through the liver, by causing it to secrete the necessary bile, and should always be preferred to pills which operate as a violent cathartic, causing nausea and weakness.

Price, 25 cents a Box.

WARNER'S SAFE NERVINE

Quickly gives Rest and Sleep to the suffering, cures Headache and Neuralgia, prevents Epileptic Fits, and relieves Nervous Prostration brought on by excessive drink, over-work, mental shocks and other causes.

Powerful as it is to stop pain and soothe disturbed nerves, it never injures the system, whether taken in small or large doses.

It often arrests the progress of serious diseases by the recuperative rest which it produces, and is beneficial in all painful diseases.

Warner's Safe Nervine is the improved discovery of the most skillful nerve doctor of the world, and an inestimable blessing to all who suffer. Bottles of two sizes, prices, 50 cts. and $1.00.

Warner's Safe Remedies are sold by Druggists and Medicine Dealers generally throughout the country. Send for Pamphlet and Testimonials.

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S

(Ex Army Medical Staff.)

CHLORODYNE

IS THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE.

CAUTION.—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. P. Wood stated that Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE was undoubtedly the inventor of CHLORODYNE; that the story of the defendant, Freeman, being the inventor was deliberately untrue, which he regretted had been sworn to. Eminent hospital physicians of London stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne was the discoverer of Chlorodyne; that they prescribe it largely, and mean no other than Dr. Browne's.—See Times, July, 12, 1864.

The Public, therefore, are cautioned against using any other than

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE.

REMEDIAL USES AND ACTION.

This invaluable remedy produces quiet, refreshing sleep, relieves pain, calms the system, restores the deranged functions, and stimulates healthy action of the secretions of the body, without creating any of those unpleasant results attending the use of opium. Old and young may take it at all hours and times when requisite. Thousands of persons testify to its marvellous good effects and wonderful cures, while medical men extol its virtues most extensively.

CHLORODYNE is admitted by the profession to be the most wonderful and valuable remedy ever discovered.

CHLORODYNE acts like a charm in diarrhœa and is the only specific in cholera and dysentery.

CHLORODYNE effectually cuts short all attacks of epilepsy, hysteria, palpitations and spasms.

EXTRACTS FROM MEDICAL OPINIONS.

The Right Hon. Earl Russell communicated to the College of Physicians and J. T. Davenport, that he had received information to the effect that the only remedy of any service in Cholera was CHLORODYNE. See Lancet, Dec. 31, 1864.

From A. Montgomery, Esq., late Inspector of Hospitals, Bombay.—"CHLORODYNE is a most valuable remedy in Neuralgia, Asthma, and Dysentery. To it I fairly owe my restoration to health, after eighteen months' severe suffering, and when other remedies had failed."

Dr. Lowe, Medical Missionary in India, reports [December, 1865] that in nearly every case of Cholera in which Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE was administered, the patient recovered.

Extract from the General Board of Health, London, as to its efficacy in Cholera.—"So strongly are we convinced of the immense value of this remedy, that we cannot too forcibly urge the necessity of adopting it in all cases."

See leading article, Pharmaceutical Journal, Aug. 1, 1859, which states that Dr. J. Collis Browne was the inventor of Chlorodyne; that it is always right to use his preparation when Chlorodyne is ordered.

CAUTION.—None genuine without the words "Dr J. COLLIS BROWNE" on the Government Stamp. Overwhelming medical testimony accompanies each bottle. Sole Manufacturer, J. T. DAVENPORT, 33, Great Russell Street, Bloomsbury, London.

CHARLES WILSON,
se5dw Secretary, Barkerville, B.C.

TO THE SHAREHOLDERS OF THE

QUESNELLE QUARTZ MINING COMPANY (LIMITED.)

THE DIRECTORS OF THE QUESNELLE QUARTZ Mining Company at the end of their term of office submit the following report for your consideration:—

During the mining season of 1879 a shaft was sunk on No. 2 location to a depth of 114 feet from the surface, the size of the shaft being 7 ft. by 3½ ft. in the clear. The shaft runs through rock which had to be blasted the entire distance; it has been thoroughly timbered throughout and is secure and commodious.

At 100 ft. from the surface a cross-drive 5 ft. by 3½ ft. in the clear was run. At a distance of 33 ft. from the shaft it cut into a body of quartz, on which a level was run 90 ft. The quartz extracted was found to be much broken and mixed with bedrock, doubtless caused by the movement of the country rock which has apparently broken and disintegrated the vein at that level.

A 5-stamp quartz mill has been purchased and erected, the cost of which was greatly enhanced by the unavoidable expense and difficulty attached to moving heavy machinery for a distance of 30 miles through a rough country where no roads or trails existed.

Forty tons of quartz were worked in the mill producing 108 ounces of bullion, which sold for $1256 67.

Good and substantial buildings have been erected over all the works.

The directors are of opinion that it is advisable to sink the shaft at least 200 ft. deeper before running any cross-drifts. To accomplish this it will be necessary to place steam power on the mine; they therefore recommend that the funds of the Company be first devoted to that purpose and that arrangements be made for the purchase of engine and pumps of the requisite capacity and to place them on the ground with as little delay as possible.

The improvements made by the Dominion Government on the Cottonwood Canon will enable boats capable of carrying machinery to reach a point within 9 miles of the mine; a road thence to the mine could be constructed, which would enable machinery to be placed on the ground at a reasonable cost.

The accounts of the Company have been carefully audited; an abstract thereof is herewith given:

From the foregoing it will be seen that there are debts or liabilities owing by the company.

The property of the company is estimated at $10,346 46, a value that would not exceed the cost of replacing it under favorable circumstances.

Since work was suspended last fall everything at the mine has been under the charge of a caretaker at an expense of $75, the only other expense incurred during the last winter being those necessary for advertising, etc., the secretary having performed the duties of his office without remuneration. Neither the auditors nor directors are or were under pay at any time. JAS. REID, President.

THE POSTOFFICE FRONT.

A Now Style of Tendering.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE COLONIST—SIR:—Tenders were called for the 28th August for the repair of the postoffice front—Mr. Tiedeman being the architect; but they were deemed too high, the proposed front being nearly all of stone. New tenders were called for the 4th September, Mr. Tiedeman fixing the time limit (verbally) "at next spring," adding that he would not have the roof touched this winter. On the 7th, when the contracts should have been signed, he said the first of March allowed time enough to finish up the job. What can be thought of an architect who will tell one party that if they get the job he will alter the specifications so that they can put the stones as far through the wall as they liked; but if another party gets it, then he will make them put the stones all the way through the wall, as the specifications call for? "I wants my revenge." On Monday the 6th, Mr. Clark, who has now secured the job, made no secret of telling every bid that had gone in. Where did he get his information from? No one would suspect anyone in Hon. Mr. Trutch's office. That gentleman would always like to see fair play. Then how did Mr. Clark come by the figures? Had he the power to summon little spirits to convey the news as soon as the tenders were opened? On the 7th inst. Mr. Carroll was called on to sign the contract, he being the lowest tenderer, and (as before stated) Mr. Tiedeman said the 1st of March was plenty of time. He did not sign as the time was too short for him. Now, then, why was not Mr. Galley sent for, he being the next lowest, only $60 above Mr. Carroll. On Wednesday the 8th, tenders were called for the third time to be sent in on the 10th. There were no alterations of plan, and the tenders of the 4th stood as follows:—Kinsman & Styles, $8,500; Smith & Clark, $9,600; William Galley, $8,400, Henry Carroll, $8,340. W. Galley sent in a note stating that his tender of the 4th would stand good as there was no alteration of plan. Kinsman & Styles did the same. Smith & Clark dropped their bid from $8,600 to $7,075—that is, if rumors are correct; but we have no exact means of knowing. Since Clark has got the job there is no one able to call up spirits to give the information. Another advantage that the contractor has got since the contract was signed is that the occupants are to leave the building while it is being repaired, which is a very great advantage. Nearly all the mechanics in town are talking about this matter and feel thoroughly disgusted with the whole affair. They are not surprised at the part Mr. Tiedeman has played, and they now call attention to it in the hope that a strict inquiry into the circumstances will be made. MECHANIC.

ROYAL INSURANCE COMPANY, LIVERPOOL AND LONDON.

ANNUAL MEETING.

THE SHAREHOLDERS OF THE COMPANY held their Annual Meeting on the 6th inst., and as has been customary in previous years, it affords me much pleasure to indicate on this occasion the prominent features of the very satisfactory report which the Directors were enabled to render of our transactions during the past year. It will, I am sure, be gratifying to our agents to know that the success which has hitherto characterized the operations of the "Royal" continues unabated—a fact which will be appreciated at once on a perusal of the following brief resume of the figures appearing in the report.

In the FIRE BRANCH the net premium income amounted to £779,318, and a profit has been realized of £142,140. The aggregate of premium received in the LIFE BRANCH amounted to £247,194, and as the result of the quiquennial investigation which has just taken place in this department a handsome surplus was found to have accrued for division amongst the assured and the shareholders, of which the proportion (3ths) payable to the policy-holders is £238,218, the balance, say, £79,404, going to the shareholders.

The funds of the Company have at the same time been materially strengthened, the sum of £100,000 having been added to the general reserve fund and £69,708 to the Life Funds, while the balance at the credit of the Profit and Loss Account has been augmented by £51,727.

The Dividend granted to the Shareholders amounted to £120,643, or upwards of 41 per cent. on the paid up capital, and the various funds of the Company now stand as follows:—

Capital Paid up	£ 299,545
Fire Fund	500,000
Reserve Fund	900,000
Balance of Profit and Loss	121,434
Life Funds	2,449,615
	£4,260,595

It will be interesting to our Agents to learn that the "Royal" is now the wealthiest known Fire Insurance Company in the world, and this circumstance will doubtless constitute a powerful assistance to each of its representatives in their efforts not only to maintain, but to improve the position which it occupies in their respective districts.

REAL ESTATE A

Daily Colonist.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, SEPT. 29TH, 1880.

L. P. FISHER, 20 and 21 New Merchants Exchange, is our authorized Agent in San Francisco.

ARE BUSINESS MATTERS REVIVING?

We are inclined to answer this question in the affirmative. We think that we detect the signs which invariably precede the dawn of an improved state of business. Money is easier. The expenditure of very large sums in the purchase of live stock and grain in the interior has raised many producers to a position of comparative independence and placed in their hands the wherewithal to discharge their liabilities to Victoria merchants; and the latter class have in their turn been made happy by the welcome acquisition of long overdue debts. The demand for goods manufactured in the province is steadily increasing because Columbians begin to take a pride in extending their custom to firms that strive to retain money in the country. A small but steady increase in the population is perceptible. There has been no rush, but settlers arrive by nearly every steamer to occupy farms on the Island or Mainland. There is an improved demand for city and country real property. Sales have not been large; but the inquiry is steady and the manifestations are those that sometimes forerun a sensible advance. The prices obtained at the recent sale of Medina Grove property show a marked awakening in the desire to possess suburban property, and few well situated and roomy dwellings now seek tenants. Another encouraging evidence is the enlargement of the area of cultivable land. In the neighborhood of Victoria there is a sensible and gratifying increase, and wild lands are being steadily subdued and cultivated. Along the Lower Fraser the salmon fishing season has not failed, as was feared, and a fair average result is now confidently anticipated. In business circles confidence, which was severely shaken by the unprecedented dullness of the spring and summer, is gradually returning, and the fall trade bids fair to be much more brisk than was at first hoped. Added to these gratifying signs, the day of broken communication between Yale and intermediate points is nearly at an end, and Victoria trade which has been partially diverted will shortly—through the establishment of a Through to Yale line of steamboats—be restored to its natural centre. Such are some of the indications which lead us to the belief that a considerable improvement in business is about to occur; and if the construction of the Island railway is comprehended in the syndicate bargain just closed at London, we may confidently expect next year a "boom" in real estate and business, but in any case a vast improvement seems imminent.

"YES."

"Have we a local government?" asks the Mainland Guardian. Well, that depends upon the object you have in sight. If you want anything done for the good of the country; any worthy purpose advanced; any public work undertaken; any enterprise furthered, we should answer in the negative—at least, no local government to speak of. But if you put the query with a fiduciary object—if, for instance, you wish to call over the pay-roll, a due regard for the noble quality of truth impels us to make answer that we have a government. It has been described as a "promising government." Asked a level-headed old business man once, "What sort of a person is that?" "He's a very promising young man," was the reply. "Then," quoth the business man, "he won't do for me. I don't want a promising young man—I want one who performs." The fact is, the ministers are forever promising to do something, but never do it. They never perform—except on their organs, and we all know the horrid sounds they emit—neither profitable, agreeable nor grammatical. "Have we a local government?" In view of the failure of the Kamloops and Cassiar trials, the deadlock in legal matters, the unconstitutional and oppressive laws, the inquisitorial tax measures, and the probable smash-up of the local House, the inquiry was most natural. And, really, were it not for salary drafts on the treasury at the beginning of each month, the subordinates at James Bay would be found asking the same question. The vicinity of the buildings has become a veritable Sleepy Hollow, where it is considered a crime for an official to speak above his breath lest the slumbers of the illustrious trio be disturbed. "A little more sleep and a little more slumber." Even the spectacle of the youngest member of the profession kicking their pet laws into court and that of the judges kicking them out again, fails to quicken their pulses or arouse them to energetic action. If a fine tooth comb were called into requisition there would not be found the suspicion of a minister lurking anywhere about—that is, if you wanted him to discharge his duty. But let an opportunity be shown for doing an ill turn to a political adversary by refusing to issue a certificate of qualification as a teacher, or a medal that has been fairly earned, and the Buildings become a hive of busy bees. Envy, Hatred and Malice erstwhile the drones, become the liveliest insects in the hive. Yes, Mr. Guardian: there may not be a local House; but there is a local government.

English Mail.

[Per steamer Isabel.]

The newspapers of Ireland say it is time that the tide of emigration from the Emerald Isle to the United States be arrested, as young labourers, at the present rate of outflow, will soon become scarce.

At a dinner given in Pont street, in London, the other day, the decorations of the table and dining room consisted of real fruit trees in full bearing—peaches, nectarines and cherries. The guests could eat their dessert from the trees.

"Like father, like son" is specially applicable to Sims Reeves, the great English tenor, and his son Herbert, who made his first public appearance a month ago. A London correspondent says of the son:—"He is a perfect copy of his father. He has his father's features, long, black, curly hair, which he also parts in the middle, and an affected gait. He bows, smiles, holds his music exactly like his father, and has all his self-possession. He has been carefully trained and so successfully coached by his father that if you shut your eyes during the singing of such a composition as Schuber's 'Ava Maria' by either of them, you would be puzzled to say which had been singing."

At Sangatte, near Calais, for a year past, work upon the proposed tunnel to connect France with England has been actively progressing. The rock underlying the channel there, and extending to the opposite side, is of gray chalk—said to be well adapted to tunneling. At Sangatte a shaft ten feet in width has been sunk to a depth of nearly two hundred feet. It will be extended one hundred feet further, when a gallery will be excavated in the direction of England. Progress is slow, twenty inches a day being the maximum. Two years' work at this rate is estimated as necessary to a perfect understanding of the possibility of success. Work is proceeding simultaneously at the opposite side of the channel. It is stated that work will not fail for lack of funds.

Sir George Elliot's expenses in unsuccessfully contesting North Durham are returned at £12,727.

It is said with a keen perception of the weakness of certain minds of mummery, associated with a show of secrecy that some promoters of the spiritualist craze in London are now getting up a spiritualistic imitation of the Masonic lodge system. This new secret society bears the name of the Guild of the Holy Spirit, has mystic rights of initiation peculiar to itself, with a system of signs and passwords for its brotherhood. An argument urged amongst its adherents of Spiritualism in support of the Guild is that many weak enquirers and half-believers who shrink from having open association with Spiritualism would willingly join a secret brotherhood of Spiritualists."

Marwood, the English hangman, has retired. Marwood has realized a fair competency and his pupil pays about the price of a snug benefice for the privilege of stepping into the shoes of his master.

An English gentleman named Hawthorn has lost his life on the mountains near the Lake of Lucerne. He was returning home by a precipitous footpath in the evening and missed his foot and fell over a hill side. He was killed. His son, aged ten years, remained on the spot all night and the next day, dreadfully fatigued, walked to Beckenried, from whence searchers proceeded and recovered the body.

A new Jeremiah has appeared in Germany, Herr Legarde, who fulminates against beerdrinking and smoking as the peculiar vices of countrymen. He contends that the tavern (kneibe) and the cigar are a more effectual means of barbarization and a more demoralizing than all the radical theories in the world put together. These gross forms of self-indulgence cost the German people more than the support of their vast army, and he adds that "he who must needs finish his days in malodorous, smoky saloons and cellars may be a liberal though he can never be a free man."

At Manchester, England, a widow with five children got $22,500 compensation from a railroad company for her husband's death.

The Royal College of Surgeons has lately severely cautioned its members against having any communication with homœopathists.

A new beauty has appeared in London to dispute the palm with Mrs. Langtry and Mrs. Cornwallis West, in the person of Mrs. Deacon, who "hails from the United States," and who had the honor of dancing with the Prince of Wales.

City of Glasgow Bank.

By a strange irony of fortune, the shares of the failed City of Glasgow Bank have become a valuable property. City of Glasgow Bank shares have become scarce because very few shareholders have survived the blood-letting process of the liquidation. Every holder who has been "sold up," or has made a compromise with the officers appointed by law for the winding-up of the bank loses his right as a shareholder. The remnant of solvent holders being thus enormously reduced, the value of the shares which remain to represent the claim upon the bank's assets becomes proportionately enhanced. With what feelings must a notification of this sort be read by the hundreds of ruined shareholders, and by the thousands of now impoverished persons dependent upon them. To think, too, that the directors of this so-called bank, just released from prison or still expiating their offence there, should have the questionable satisfaction of knowing that they have actually raised the market value of each share to £3,000.—Ex.

A Compliment for "Bob Ingersoll."

(From the Whitehall Review.)

An Infidel Colonel of Volunteers, named Robert Ingersoll is making the warm weather in New York much warmer by delivering a series of Sunday evening lectures at a theatre in which religion is ridiculed and attacked with scarcely any limit of epithet and imagery. The gallant Colonel boasts that he has defied the Almighty for years and has never been harmed by Him. This reminds me of the reply made at the Savage Club by an ex-clergyman, named Barton, to poor Tom Robertson, who was indulging in a somewhat similar style of idle talk. "You forget, Tom," said Barton, "that the Almighty is capable of infinite contempt as well as of infinite justice."

The Farmer and the Tax Gatherer.

SCENE IN THE CARIBOO DISTRICT.

Tax-gatherer—Fine day, Mr. ——.

Farmer—Yes. Looking for money, I suppose?

Tax-gatherer—Yes, sir.

Farmer—Well, there is not much due, anyway. Half my cattle died last winter.

Tax-gatherer—Half!

Farmer—More than half. Nearly two-thirds. How much is the bill?

Tax-gatherer—Forty-five dollars and fifty cents.

Farmer—What! That is more than double the amount I would have to pay if all the cattle were alive.

Tax-gatherer—No, sir. It is only double the original. If you had paid before the 1st of July twenty-two dollars and seventy-five cents would be sufficient. The delay of payment has doubled the tax.

Farmer—But no one applied to me for the money.

Tax-gatherer—No, sir. Application for payment was not necessary. A notice that has been published in the Government Gazette is supposed to be a sufficient notice for all taxpayers.

Farmer—No one ever sees that paper or the Standard in this part of the country. But is it lawful to double my tax in that manner?

Tax-gatherer—Yes, sir, that is the law.

Farmer—That's Walkem's work. Ain't he a nice coon? Did you hear what he did for a rich man?

Tax-gatherer—No.

Farmer—He moved a toll-gate so that certain plant will pass over the road free of toll. This change effects a saving of thirty thousand dollars for someone. I suppose he sent the little coon a box of cigars?

Tax-gatherer—I did not hear the toll-gate was moved, and I know that Mr. Walkem would not take a box of cigars.

Farmer—No! May be you think he got $10,000?

Tax-gatherer—No, sir. Mr. Walkem is a gentleman above suspicion. He would not take a bribe.

Farmer—Well, then, you may be sure he got something in exchange for the $30,000 given away at the public expense. Perhaps he got situations for his friends.

Tax-gatherer—Oh, you're mad, now, because you forgot to pay the tax in time. You were always a great friend of Walkem's.

Farmer—Friendship ceases when I see his little game is to "sinch" the farmer and the miner and serve the rich man. We are plundered by the road tolls, and this system of double taxation. Come on, I'll pay the bill, though it is four times more than I am justly entitled to pay. Having lost so much of my property I expected my tax would not exceed $10. Forty-five dollars and fifty cents!! It is robbery.

Municipal Police Court.

[Before Hon. A. P. Pemberton.]

TUESDAY, Sept. 28.

An Indian woman named Mrs. Jenkins, charged with being in possession of an intoxicant, was released from custody.

Thomas Hampton, convicted of vagrancy, failed to appear for sentence, and three months' imprisonment with hard labor was recorded against him.

Scottie, alias Cameron, charged with supplying an intoxicant to the Indian woman above mentioned, pleaded guilty and was fined $50, in default of payment one month's imprisonment with hard labor.

The only other charge on the docket was one of d. and d. against a kloochman who was fined the usual sum.

County Court.

[Before Hon. A. F. Pemberton.]

TUESDAY, Sept. 28.

Woodward vs. Harris & Macdonald—This was a suit brought under the Lien Act to recover $72 for work done by plaintiff on a house situated on Pandora street.

The evidence of the plaintiff having been adduced the case was adjourned for a day.

Mr. Theo. Davie for the plaintiff and Mr. Robertson, Q. C., for the defendant.

THE news we published yesterday with reference to the Franklin expedition sets aside all doubt as to the fate of the officers and crews of the ships Erebus and Terror. A brother of Mrs. T. Chadwick of this city belonged to the former vessel and is thus numbered amongst the lost.

AMATEUR PERFORMANCE.—The Rocket amateurs, assisted by a few Victoria friends, will give an entertainment at Pavilion Hall to-morrow evening. A very pleasant programme has been prepared, and the proceeds will be applied in aid of the Rocket Templar Hall and Reading Room.

GAS.—The quality of gas supplied to the city, usually an excellent article, has deteriorated lately. It is only necessary to mention the fact to insure an improvement.

REGULAR meeting of the City Council this evening.

"Our Best Society."

One of the most interesting lectures it has been our fortune to listen to in this city was that delivered at Philharmonic Hall last evening by the Rev. Dr. Milburn, known in literary circles throughout England and the United States as "The Blind Man Eloquent." The lecturer, who was introduced to the audience by Rev. S. Macgregor, selected for his subject "Our Best Society" and in opening his discourse referred at some length to the origin of the English speaking race and the manner in which their language has been handed down from age to age. He premised his subsequent remarks by asserting that society is necessary for our being and then proceeded in a pathetic manner to describe the difference between the loss of sight and hearing, claiming that of the two tribulations the latter is the greater. He spoke in eloquent terms of the compassion always readily extended to the blind man—the hand ever willing to assist him through the labyrinths of the world. In dealing with the real subject of his lecture he alluded to the falsity of the supposition that money, in the literal meaning of the word, is wealth, and explained that the latter term signifies the well being either of the individual or community. Whilst not denying that money is necessary to secure the enjoyments and attributes of society he did not admit that in itself it was the real wealth of social life. After describing the effects of the investment of large sums of money in estates in England and dilating on the dignity of lordly establishments of necessity maintained, he referred to the ostentatiousness characteristic of newly acquired wealth. By way of illustration he took an imaginary Jeremiah Hornblower, a successful mining operator in California, who sends his family to Paris to receive a continental polish. In this portion of his lecture the reverend gentleman related numerous anecdotes, conveying to the audience in a comprehensive manner the errors in social life peculiar to snobocracy. After depicting in faithful colors the mockeries of fashionable life amongst the dollar worshippers of New York he gave the audience a glimpse of the habits and manners of club loungers in London, introducing incidents which frequently provoked the audience to genuine laughter. The final portion of the lecture was devoted to a description of scenes in the English House of Lords, the reverend gentlemen placing great stress on the fact that from the lowest to the highest grade of society in Great Britain a system of apprenticeship exists which contributes in a great measure to the wealth and power of the British nation. In proof of his contention that such a system is necessary to the welfare of a people and in support of the assertion that Our Best Society can neither originate from the inheritance of wealth nor the sudden accumulation of money, the lecturer referred in eloquent terms to the lives of men who have elevated themselves from the lowest to the highest round of the social ladder and have thus been enabled to administer the affairs of nations. With many such illustrations and with numerous references to the finer feelings of manhood the lecturer held his audience closely wrapped and in conclusion announced that he would give his farewell discourse this evening, leaving it to those who may be present to decide whether they will hear him on "What a Blind Man Saw in Paris," or on "Richard Brinsley Sheridan." This will be the last opportunity of listening to the lecturer, who is full of eloquence, argument and pathos.

The Steamer Cassiar--Through to Yale.

This steamer has been thoroughly inspected by Mr. Westgarth, who unhesitatingly granted her a certificate to convey passengers and freight between New Westminster and Yale. He has directed that the hog-chains shall be strengthened and certain other inexpensive additions made when a certificate for the Through to Yale service will be issued to her. It is probable that these improvements will not be made until after the close of navigation in the winter when she will be placed in thorough condition for the through service. She will leave for New Westminster at noon to-day.

Sudden Change.

The flagship Triumph is under orders to proceed to Callao at daybreak on Saturday next. The purport of this somewhat unexpected dispatch has not transpired, but is supposed to point to the carrying out of peace negotations between Chili and Peru, the presence of a formidable fleet being deemed necessary.

LOVE BEHIND THE BARS.—Everybody has at least heard of "love in a cottage," but courtship in gaol is of a somewhat novel character. A case, however, of affinity is reported from the city prison, the parties to the match being a man who is undergoing a term for vagrancy and a woman who recently surrendered herself to the authorities for safe keeping, her mind at that time being deranged. The man, who has passed ten out of the last twelve years in gaol, principally on convictions for supplying whiskey to Indians, expressed a desire to marry the woman, and yesterday morning obtained a hearing with the Superintendent of Police and told him of his infatuation. The officer listened with surprise to the narrative of love, but the man resolutely pressed his suit and stated that he wished to secure official consent to the wedding. His term of imprisonment expires to-day and if the authorities will release the woman from custody he promises that he will enter into the bonds of holy matrimony with her and "love and cherish her until death does them part."

MECHANICS' INSTITUTE.—The preparations for the grand polytechnic show are nearly completed. The committee are energetic and are doing all in their power to bring the matter to a successful issue. Parties having paintings, citrios, etc., which they would be disposed to place on exhibition are requested to leave their names at Mr. Redfern's jewelry store.

BOYS' CLOTHING—SCOTCH HOUSE—A. McLEAN & Co. have received a large stock of Boys' Scotch Tweed Suits, which they offer at the lowest possible advance on cost. Also, a fine assortment of Boys' Wool Socks and Stockings, Under Shirts and Drawers and Superior Scotch made Over Shirts 50 cents. *

THE DRYDOCK.—Excavation of the site was commenced on Monday morning. About 50 men and eight teams are employed.

THE steamer Cariboo-Fly left at her usual hour yesterday with the mails and about a dozen passengers.

THE steamer Skidegate having been placed in thorough repair will sail for Queen Charlotte Island to-day.

Protection Against Fire.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE COLONIST:

Sir.—Permit me through your popular paper to call the attention of the public generally and our councillors in particular to the necessity of immediately carrying out certain suggestions of the Fire Department's Chief Engineer for the better security of certain portions of our city against fire: viz:—The neighborhood of North Park street and that portion of the town known as James Bay. These important districts are wholly without the means of subduing a conflagration that at any moment may occur, and are so thickly populated that a fire getting well under-way would cause the destruction of much valuable property, and our Fire Department, supported at a very heavy cost, would be of no avail. Has not the city sufficient funds, or is it a lack of interest on the part of Councilmen to attend to the requirements of the public? Of what benefit is an efficient engineer and a thoroughly trained department if their requirements are not considered and supplied?

NORTH PARK STREET.

P. S.—The suggestions above referred to were that three water tanks should be built: two in James Bay Ward and one in the neighborhood of North Park street.

The Australian Cricketers in England.

The Australian cricketers who visited England this year have been persistently snubbed by the county clubs and leading local and amateur clubs. Their matches have, as a rule, been confined to eighteen and twenty-twos that they picked up wherever they could find them. The reason for this reluctance on the part of the leading English clubs to play with the visitors who came so far to contest with "the willows" on the home ground is well known. It is entirely owing to the disgraceful manner in which the Australians treated Lord Harris' splendid amateur team when visiting Australia last year. They were beating the Australian picked team on their own ground. This the latter could not stand. The ground was invaded, and the Englishmen mobbed and seriously threatened. Americans will long remember the scene at Philadelphia when the Australians disgracefully withdrew from a losing game. Most of the members of the present team in England played on both the occasions mentioned. No one denies that they are excellent cricketers, and they have been strengthened by some judicious changes. They have not heretofore lost a single game this season, though they have played against many strong teams. Several letters appeared in the London papers, asking to give these fine cricketers a trial with some of the leading elevens. The Englishmen seemed at last to have swallowed their choler and brought together a very strong eleven, comprising three professionals. Among the gentlemen were Lord Harris, Hon. A. Lyttleton, the three Graces Steel, Lucas and Penn. These are some of the finest gentlemen cricketers in England. They resolved on giving the visitors a lesson in cricket. The first day one Grace scored 36; another Grace 152—a strong score in itself. Four wickets fell for 281 runs, and every player a superior batsman.

The match was resumed on the 8th, and in twenty minutes the English innings closed for a total of 420. The Australians then went to the wicket. Bannerman played brilliantly for 32, but the whole team was out before four o'clock for 149 and consequently followed on. In the second inning Australia did better, Murdoch making 79, McDonnell 43, and at the time of drawing stumps the total was 170 for six wickets, Murdoch and Bonner not out. Play was resumed on the following day and resulted in a victory for the English team with five wickets to spare.

Bismarckians.

Quite characteristic of his way were the remarks he made in our hearing at Versailles on the evening of Feb. 2nd, 1871. He told us that during the day he had been to St. Cloud and that on the way thither he had met many people with household utensils and beds probably returning inhabitants of the villages around Paris, who, during the siege, had fled from their homes. "The women looked quite friendly," he observed, "but the men, on seeing the Prussian uniform, assumed a hostile expression and heroic attitude. This reminds me of the old Neapolitan army which had a word of command that ordered the men to assume a like attitude. Where in our army the command would be, 'Arms to the charge, right' in the Neapolitan army it would be, "Faccia, ferace," i. e., look savage. With the French everything lies in a magnificent attitude, a pompous speech and an impressive, theatrical mein. If it only sounds right and looks like something the meaning is all one. They are like the Potsdam burgher and freeholder who once told me that a speech of Radowitz had touched and effected him deeply. I asked him if he could point out any passage which had specially gone to his heart or seemed particularly fine. He could not name one. Thereupon I read the whole speech to him, and asked him what was the affecting passage. It turned out that there was nothing of the sort there, nothing either striking or affecting. In short, it was nothing but the manner and attitude of the orator, which looked as if he were saying the deepest, most interesting, and most striking things—the thoughtful glance, the devout eyes, the voice full of tone and weight. It was the same with Waldeck, though he was not so able a man, or of such distinguished appearance."—Moritz Busch, in North American Review.

The Way They Do up North.

A Detroit man who was hunting land a few weeks ago in Antrim County, came across a settler who was doing some logging with a yoke of oxen. The two sat down together on a log and had a talk, during which it transpired that the settler had been a deacon in a village in the southern part of the State, and had lately moved in there. By and by the Detroiter moved on, but after traveling for half a mile had to retrace his steps to secure closer particulars regarding the lay of a surveyed highway. While he was yet eighty rods away he heard shouts, and the nearer he drew the more the shouts sounded like cuss words. When he reached the clearing the settler was jumping up and down and pounding the oxen, which refused to pull on a log. Every word uttered by the settler required three exclamation points to punctuate it, and they were ground out like wheat from a hopper.

"My friend, didn't I understand you to say," observed the Detroiter, "that you were a deacon of the church?"

"Whoa, there, you —— infernal ——, you, or I'll knock your horns off! Yes, that's what I told you."

"And you expressed the hope that you might become the shining light in this wilderness?"

"I did. Back up there, you —— old hyena with horns on! Yes, that's my hope."

"But the language you have been, and are, making use of is utterly inconsistent with your asserted faith and profession."

"Stranger—whoa, you old imp!—stranger—stand up there or I'll chew your ear off—stranger, there is only one way for a Christian man to work alongside of a yoke of straw-colored steers. I've tried all other ways and I've had to come to this. See that ——infernal, idiot-headed steer trying to turn his yoke! Hold on till I cut the hide off his ribs!"

"What way is that?" asked the Detroiter, after the settler had worn out his gad and thrown the stump of it away.

"You've got to holler, and yell, and swear, and sweat during the day and sing 'Old Hundred' all the evening! The general opinion around here is that one sort o' balances the other, especially as none of us go fishing on Sunday; but if it don't balance and there's anything extra laid up agin me I've got to git even by pounding that mule hitched over there with one hand and holding the other over my mouth. Whoa there—back up, or I'll cut your hides to shoe strings.—Detroit Free Press.

Religious Intelligence.

A London gentleman has given $10,000 to fit up a mission-house in that city for the conversion of the Jews.

In connection with the American Baptist Mission among the Teloogoos of India, there have been ordained 24 of the converts for mission work. There have been more than 1,300 converts baptized since January last.

The Belknap (N.H.) Congregational Association has issued a declaration against divorce, "except for the single valid Scriptural cause," and has called upon the ministers and associations to take a stand on the subject.

Prof. Robertson Smith, in the course of some correspondence with a colleague, Prof. Binnie, asserts his belief in the supernatural element of the Bible, and resents the imputation that he does not accept anything in the Scriptures of the nature of miracles.

The cure of Carentan, France, who refused to hoist the national flag on his church on the occasion of the national fete of July 14, and spoke impertinently of M. Grevy, has been rewarded for his "courageous conduct under delicate circumstances" by his bishop, who appoints him honorary canon of the cathedral.

The colored Baptists of Texas, Arkansas, and Northern Louisiana, numbering about 100,000, have determined to build a college for the education of ministers and teachers, in the city of Marshall, Texas. They are making a vigorous and successful effort to raise $10,000 for this purpose among themselves.

The English pilgrimage to Lourdes has been postponed, and will probably not take place this year. This is said to be in accordance with the advice of Cardinal Manning, who fears that such a demonstration by English Catholics might be thought in France to have a political significance. The Cardinal, by the way, is in rather feeble health.

Yung Kwai, a Chinaman, became a convert to Christianity while at school at Springfield, Mass. He wrote home about it to his father, who is one of the highest of the Chinese nobles. The father wrote a very indignant letter to his son, who was ordered to return home at once. As he was determined to be true to his new faith at all hazards, he looked upon his return to China as going to almost certain death. He started quietly with other boys for Boston, whence they were to sail for home, by way of Europe, but stepped from the train, and that is the last that has been seen of him. Where he is nobody seems to know. He is 20 years old, and he is evidently hoping to keep hidden for a year until he becomes of age and can become a citizen of the United States.

PIANOS AND ORGANS.—The success Prof. A. L. Francis has met with in Victoria has induced him to make this place his headquarters. He will visit New Westminster and other principal points in British Columbia and Puget Sound regularly. All orders for tuning and repairing Pianos, Organs and other Musical Instruments may be left at M. W. WAITT & Co.'s Store. First-class work guaranteed. *

DENTAL.—Mr. R. B. Thompson, Dentist, having removed to his new rooms in Masonic Building, Government street, immediately over T. Wilson & Co.'s dry goods store, is now prepared to attend to his patients there. *

Desolation of Palestine.

The Rev. W. J. Starcey writes to the London Times of the deplorable condition of the Holy Land, which he has recently visited. He says:

Nothing can well exceed the desolation of much of it. Treeless it is for twenty or thirty miles together, forests which did exist thirty years ago on Mount Carmel and Mount Tabor fast disappearing, rich plains of the finest garden soil asking to be cultivated, at best but scratched up a few inches deep in patches, with no hedges, or boundaries, mountain terraces natural, or artificially formed, ready to be planted with vines, as the German colonies are doing at the foot of Mount Carmel, the villages nothing but mud huts; dust, dirt, and squalor; the inhabitants with scarce clothing enough for decency, their houses—ovens; large tracts without a horse, or cow, sheep or dog; no pretence at roads, except from Jaffa to Jerusalem, and this like a cart road over a plowed field, the rest, at best like sheep walks on the Downs or Sussex, but for the most part like the dry bed of the most rocky river, where amid blocks of stone, each makes his way at a foot pace as best he can, or on smooth, sloping rocks or over loose stones thrown from the old walls on either side, which no one offers a finger to remove; nothing upon wheels, not so much as a barrow, to be met with in a ride of 3000 miles. Everything is taxed; every fruit tree, so none now are planted; every cow or horse, etc.; every vegetable sold out of a private garden. Every eighth egg is not taxed but taken by the government. Nothing like a small farm-house is to be found far or near. If there were, the owner is liable to have soldiers or revenue officers quartered upon him to be boarded and lodged at his expense. The towns are filthy in the extreme. None more so than Jerusalem itself, where, however taxes are levied from every house for lighting and cleaning the streets, while a sprained ankle or a splash into a hole of blackest dirt is sure to be the result of a momentary carelessness. Nothing is done for the good or the improvement of the land by the government. Not only so, but every offer, and I heard of several made by private individuals, or by companies, is at once refused unless a bribe be first given to the authorities.

This is a picture, I believe, in no way overdrawn, of that land which was once "flowing with milk and honey." What might it not become again, with fair usage and good government? But there is no hope for Palestine while it remains in the hands of its present rulers. Palestine is worthless to the Turkish government. The whole revenue is stated to amount only to $900,000 or $1,000,000 per annum. Capitalize this as five per cent., and it comes to but four millions of money. If it were six or even ten millions, what would that be for Palestine? A sum sure to be repaid a thousand-fold in a few years' time. And what would not $50,000,000 in hard cash be to the Turkish government at this moment?

The Dynamite Plot on the N. W. Railway

LONDON, Sept. 13.

A most diabolical attempt was made to-day to wreck the down express on the North Western railway. This train, which comes from Edinburg and Glasgow, it appears, was supposed to carry among its passengers the Russian Grand Duke Constantine, Admiral Popoff, of the Russian navy, and some other Russian officials who had been visiting Greenock for the purpose of examining certain vessels now in course of construction there. The Nihilist refugees in England, it is believed, had concocted the plan of blowing up the train and destroying these officials, as well as the other passengers, for the purpose of demonstrating that even in England the life of a Russian Prince and his aides were not safe from their vengeance. By a most providential interposition, this well laid plot failed of accomplishment, although the escape was a very narrow one. Near the station of Busby, a village not far from London, some platelayers working on the track discovered at a spot over two hundred yards from the village some fish-plates which had been tampered with. The foreman of the plate-layers made an examination which resulted in the discovery that 4 lbs. of dynamite had been placed under the plates. The plates which joined two of the rails had been removed and the dynamite placed underneath. The dynamite was connected to an india-rubber tube containing gunpowder. The locomotive in its passage cut this tube in half, but at a point where, by an almost miraculous accident, the percussion caps which were intended to fire the dynamite had been misplaced. They failed to explode, and the train passed in safety over what was designed to blow it and its passengers into eternity. This train had passed only a few minutes when the discovery was made. Intelligence of the affair was at once sent to London, and the most skillful detectives of Scotland Yard with their foreign auxiliaries are now seeking to discover those who devised and tried to execute this horrible plot. Happily the chances of their detection are good. A careful record is kept of all refugees from Russia, and suspicion already attaches to a lady and gentleman who have been often seen near Busby, and to some companions of theirs who frequently met them at a house near that place.

It was two hours after the train had passed Busby before the dynamite plot was discovered concealed in the fish-plate of the rail. Some metals and a burglar's jimmy were also found alongside of the rail. The railway officials are in great consternation, and a number of porters and police have been echeloned along the line of the road near the scene of the discovery.

Talmage Says, "Let the Chinese Come."

NEW YORK, September 19.—Talmage delivered an address on the Chinese question to-night, saying: I saw Chinatown at its worst, and I tell you it is bad enough, but not as bad as the night side of New York. There is not under God's heaven any more industrious, sober, honest, courteous, generally intelligent, obliging people. If my friends were treated half so badly in Brooklyn as the Chinamen are treated in 'Frisco, we'd want to be buried three thousand miles from this city. If this Government is to stand liberty and protection must be given alike to Chinese Joss House, Catholic Cathedral, Quaker Meeting House and Presbyterian Church. Let the Chinese come, they will make glorious Christians. When I saw the Republican Party, by a plank in the platform, denying to the Yellow man the liberties claimed for the black man, I wondered if the sceptre was not departing. Talmage promises to talk next Sunday about the Mormons.

SOME Indians use scalping knives of tortoise shell, probably on account of the old fable in which the tortoise was alleged to have got away with hare.

False Impression.

It is generally supposed by a certain class of citizens, who are not practical or experienced, that Dyspepsia can not invariably be cured, but we are pleased to say that GREEN'S AUGUST FLOWER has never, to our knowledge, failed to cure Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint in all its forms, such as Sour Stomach, Costiveness Sick Headache, palpitation of the Heart, low spirits, &c. &c. Out of 30 000 dozen bottles sold last year, not a single failure was reported, but thousands of complimentary letters received from Druggists of wonderful cures. Three doses will relieve any case. Try it. Sample Bottles 10 cents. Regular Sizes 75 cents. For sale by all Druggists. *

The Title of "Singer" a Trade Mark.

When the Singer sewing machine patents expired in 1877 a number of companies were formed to manufacture "Singer" machines, a prefix being usually added as "New York Singer;" but an Ohio Court has just decided that the word "Singer" is a trade-mark in whose use the courts will protect the original company. A like case has been carried to the House of Lords in England and decided in favor of the Singer Company. —S. F. Bulletin, Aug. 25. *

REMARKABLE RESULTS FOLLOW.—Pain ceases, swellings subside, fever abates, and a natural and healthy state exists after using this great and wonderful preparation known as Thomas' Eclectric Oil. Thousands testify to the happiness resulting from the use of this preparation. Why not procure a bottle at once? The cost is trifling, and effect sure. One dose cures common sore throat. One bottle has cured bronchitis. Fifty cents' worth has cured an old standing cough. It positively cures catarrh, asthma and croup. Fifty cents' worth has cured crick in the back, and the same quantity lame back of eight years' standing. The following are extracts from a few of the many letters that have been received from different parts, which, we think, should be sufficient to satisfy the most sceptical:

Thomas Robinson, Farnham Centre, writes: "I have been afflicted with Rheumatism for the last ten years, and have tried many remedies without any relief, until I tried 'DR. THOMAS' ECLECTRIC OIL,' and since then have had no attack of it. I would recommend it to all."

See what the Medical Faculty say: Dr. Beaudoin, Hull, P. Q., says: "I have sold 'Thomas' Eclectric Oil' for two years, and I have never sold a medicine which has given me more thorough satisfaction. I have used it in my own case on a broken leg and dislocated ankle, with the best results."

A. H. Gregg, Manufacturer of Mowing Machines, Truemansburg, N. Y., says:—"My thumb was caught in a machine and badly injured, being away from home, for two days, was obliged to apply such remedies as I could get, but without relieving the pain. Immediately upon reaching home I applied the ECLECTRIC OIL, with almost instant relief. I have a large number of men employed, and your Oil has established for itself such a reputation that nearly every one of them keeps it."

It is composed of SIX OF THE BEST OILS THAT ARE KNOWN. Is as good for internal as for external use, and is believed to be immeasurably superior to anything ever made. Will save you much suffering and many dollars of expense.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.—Ask for Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil. See that the signature of S. N. Thomas is on the wrapper, and the names of Northrop & Lyman are blown in the bottle, and Take no other. Sold by all medicine dealers. Price 25 cents. NORTHROP & LYMAN, Toronto, Ont., Proprietors for the Dominion.

NOTE.—Eclectric—Selected and Electrized.

CUSTOM HOUSE BLANKS for Entry, Outwards, Nos. 48 and 48½, for sale in quantities to suit, at The Colonist Stationery Store. *

EVERYBODY goes to the St. Charles Music Hall because the best Variety Performance on this coast can be seen there every night free of charge. *

ON TIME.—Ten cases new Fall Novelties, 50 days from London; just received at the White House. *

To the Public.

The public is perhaps not aware why the eight English Companies doing business here have suddenly become so patriotic as to publish ("purporting") departmental reports of Canada and paying for them out of their own pockets. When the "PHENIX" of Brooklyn had done business here about a fortnight we received a letter signed by H. S. Mason, Secretary of the eight companies who have hitherto done business here, to adopt the minimum rates. This we declined to do on behalf of the Phenix. Next morning and ever since the papers have been flooded with insurance information which nobody asked for, and which was only put in to prevent people insuring in the Phenix and keep up the high rates hitherto ruling here. As the matter is pretty well ventilated now we wish to inform the public that our Victoria rates are:—For isolated dwellings ¾ per cent. a year or 1¼ per cent. for three years, exclusive of city tax,—just half the rate charged for the same risk by the eight companies represented by Mr. Mason.

That the PHENIX stands very high as an honorable company we publish a letter received, unsolicited, from an American fire office in San Francisco.

"We note your advice to the Fire Department of having taken the agency of the PHENIX of Brooklyn, New York. It is a first class company and you will do doubtless a good business for it. We regret for ourselves that there will be a probable cessation of risks from your quarter, but are glad for your sake that so good a company has come your way and wish you lots of luck with it. Yours truly,

"W. J. DUTTON,

"Asst. Sec. Fireman's Fund Ins. Co."

The PHENIX has got a Cash Capital of $2,582,669, which is more than the insured value of all the property in British Columbia, hence there is absolute security. A deposit of $104,000 is made with the Dominion Government.

We have authority to settle all losses in Victoria, and promptly, too, not like one of the advertising companies, which took 3 months to pay a loss incurred less than 2 years ago.

TO THE PUBLIC.

IN ANSWER TO MR. CLAY'S "CAUTION TO Saloon Keepers," I beg to state that I had no intention of pleading the "Tippling Act," and told him so previous to the case being called; but in his account were charges amounting to over $20 for goods which I am prepared to swear were never ordered nor received by myself nor any member of my family. My lawyer, therefore, thought it perfectly justifiable to plead the "Tippling Act," which reduced the amount by $14. I have now paid Mr. Clay more than $6 above what was due to him. I leave the public to judge if I was not justified, under the circumstances, in pleading the Act as a set-off to Mr. Clay's attempt to obtain payment for goods which had never left his store.
